

BIOGRAPHY

BUFFALO MILITARY ENTRANE PROCESSING STATION

Entrance Ave, Building 799, Niagara Falls ARS, NY 14304-5000

Phone: (463) 203-4382

First Sergeant Stacey S. Dodds

United States Army

Senior Enlisted Advisor

First Sergeant Stacey S. Dodds is the senior enlisted advisor of the Buffalo Military Entrance Processing Station.

She enlisted in the Army at the Fort Jackson MEPS in January 2000, and completed Basic Combat Training at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

She served as personnel services specialist, 25th Transportation Battalion, Yongsan, Republic of Korea; enlisted promotions noncommissioned officer, A Detachment, 18th Personnel Services Battalion, Fort Bragg, North Carolina; administrative noncommissioned officer, 552nd Military Police Company, Busan, Republic of Korea; senior human resource sergeant, 73rd Brigade Support Battalion Airborne, Bamberg, Germany; senior human resource sergeant, 10th Combat Aviation Brigade, 1-10th Attack Battalion, Fort Drum, New York; equal opportunity advisor, U.S. Army Training Command, Fort Jackson; senior human resources sergeant, Vilseck, Germany; detachment sergeant, United Nations Command Military Armistice Commission, Yongsan; and senior executive administrative noncommissioned officer in charge, United States Forces Command, Camp Humphreys, South Korea.

First Sergeant Dodds's professional military education includes the Basic, Advanced, Senior, and Master Leader Courses, Equal Opportunity Advisor Course, Sexual Harassment Assault Response and Prevention Course, Brigade Personnel Course, and Battle Staff Course. She earned an Associate of Business Administration from Central Texas College.

Her military awards and decorations include two Defense Meritorious Service Medals, the Meritorious Service Medal, nine Army Commendation Medals, the Joint Service Achievement Medal, six Army Achievement Medals, and various unit and service medals and ribbons.