

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING COMMAND

Public Affairs Office

2834 Green Bay Road, North Chicago, IL 60064-3094

Phone: (847) 688-4874 Fax: (847) 688-2664

Major William L. Busch

United States Air Force

Commander

Fort Jackson Military Entrance Processing Station

Major William L. Busch is the commander of the Fort Jackson Military Entrance Processing Station.

He enlisted in the Air Force at the Des Moines Military Entrance Processing Station, and served as a KC-10 guidance and control technician, 660th Aircraft Generation Squadron, Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada. Next he attended the University of Iowa Reserve Officers Training Corps Program, and received his commission in 2006. His assignments include section commander, 820th Red Horse Squadron, Nellis Air Force Base; chief, Customer Support, 99th Mission Support Squadron, Nellis Air Force Base; team lead, and flight chief, both at 2nd Manpower Requirements Squadron, Langley Air Force Base, Virginia; and chief, Protocol, and both deputy director, and director, Manpower, Personnel and Resources, all at 14th Air Force, Vandenberg Air Force Base, California.

His professional military education includes Air and Space Basic Course, Manpower Staff Officer Course, and Squadron Officer School. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the University of Iowa, Iowa City; and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

Major Busch's military awards and decorations include the Air Force Meritorious Service Medal, three Air Force Commendation Medals, the Air Force Achievement Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, and various unit and service medals and ribbons.