

DETROIT

Military Entrance Processing Station
1172 Kirts Boulevard, Troy, MI 48084-4846
(248) 729-4200

Major Casey O'Doherty United States Marine Corps

Maj. Casey O'Doherty is the commander of the Detroit Military Entrance Processing Station and supports the USMEPCOM mission of evaluating applicants by applying Department of Defense standards in processing and determining eligibility for military service.

He received his commission through the Platoon Leaders Course out of the Spokane, WA office in 2008.

Maj. O'Doherty served as Operation Officer for Marine Air Support Squadron 2 (MASS-2) where the squadron was the recipient of the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing Marine Air Command and Control Squadron of the Year; Officer Selection Officer for Recruiting Station; Tactical Air Director, Helicopter Director, and Senior Air Director in support of OPERATION ENDURING FREEDOM. He also held Company Command at MASS-2 which supporting exercises with the Philippines, Japan, Thailand, Korea, and Australia.

Maj. O'Doherty's civilian and military education include Marine Corps Expeditionary Warfare School, Air Force Command and Staff Distance Education Program, and Advance Multi Tactical Data Link Course. He graduated from Eastern Washington University with a Bachelor of Science in counseling, education, and developmental psychology.

Maj. O'Doherty's personal awards and decorations include Meritorious Service Medal, two Navy and Marine Corps Commendation, and Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.