

Honolulu

Military Entrance Processing Station
490 Central Avenue, Pearl Harbor, HI 96860
Phone: (808) 664-6144

Command Senior Chief Erhrolejhan Navarro

United States Navy

Command Senior Chief Petty Officer Erhrolejhan Navarro is the senior enlisted advisor of the Honolulu Military Entrance Processing Station and supports the U.S. Military Entrance Processing Command's mission of evaluating applicants by applying Department of Defense standards in processing and determining eligibility for military service.

He enlisted in the United States Navy at the Sacramento MEPS in 2001. He attended Recruit Training Command in Great Lakes, Illinois.

He served as 3-M coordinator and executive, Plans & Tactics Department; leading chief petty officer onboard the destroyer USS Daniel Inouye; and sea duty assignments aboard the destroyer USS Stethem and the destroyer USS Russel.

His military education includes the Surface Sonar Anti-Submarine Specialist School and Master Training Specialist qualification, on instructor duty, at Fleet ASW Training Center, U.S. Navy Senior Enlisted Academy, and Command Master Chief/Chief Of the Boat Course. He received his Integrated Undersea Surveillance Specialist pin at Naval Oceanographic Processing Center, Dam Neck. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Human Resources Management and a Master of Science Education and Instructional Design from National University.

His personal awards include two Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, five Navy and Marine Achievement Medals and various service, unit and personal medals and ribbons.