

Indianapolis

Military Entrance Processing Station
5541 Herbert Lord Drive, Indianapolis, IN 46216
(463) 203-4159

Lieutenant Commander Colin W. Nash

United States Navy

Lieutenant Commander Colin W. Nash is the Commander of the 6th Battalion Indianapolis Military Entrance Processing Station and supports the USMEPCOM mission of evaluating applicants by applying Department of Defense standards in processing and determining eligibility for military service.

He received his commission through Navy Officer Candidate School at Newport, RI in 2012.

Lieutenant Commander Nash served as an E-2D Hawkeye Naval Flight Officer attached to Carrier Airborne Early Warning Squadron 121 homeported in Norfolk, Virginia and deployed on the USS Abraham Lincoln with Carrier Air Wing Seven to 5th Fleet and on the USS Nimitz with Carrier Air Wing Eleven to 5th and 7th Fleet Areas of Operation; Site Lead, Naval Service Support Advanced Training Command, Learning Site Corry Station in Pensacola, Florida; Training and Program Analyst for the Naval Education and Training Command Headquarters in Pensacola, Florida.

Lieutenant Commander Nash earned a Master of Business Administration from University of West Florida, Pensacola, Florida and a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Sciences Marine and Coastal Resource Management from Texas A&M at Corpus Christ, Texas.

His military awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, two Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, and various service, unit and personal medals and ribbons.