

Jackson

Military Entrance Processing Station
100 W Capitol St. Jackson, MS 39269
(463) 203-4159

Major Tiara Robinson

United States Army

Maj. Tiara Robinson is the commander of the Jackson Military Entrance Processing Station and supports the USMEPCOM mission of evaluating applicants by applying Department of Defense standards in processing and determining eligibility for military service.

She earned her commission from Jackson State University and attended the Adjutant General Corps School at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

Maj. Robinson served as the Brigade Senior Human Resources Officer for 2nd Armored Brigade Combat Team, 1st Armored Division at Fort Bliss, Texas; Executive Officer/Operations Officer, Memphis MEPS, USMEPCOM, Memphis, Tennessee; Battalion S1 OIC, 2nd Battalion, 7th Special Forces Group (Airborne), Eglin AFB, Florida, Battalion S1, 1st Battalion, 7th Air Defense Artillery Regiment, 108th ADA BDE, Fort Bragg, North Carolina; served an operational deployment to the United Arab Emirates with 1-7th Air Defense Artillery, served two combat deployments to Afghanistan with 2nd Battalion, 7th Special Forces Group and served in various countries in Europe with the 2nd Armored Brigade Combat Team.

Her military education includes the U.S. Army Airborne School, the Adjutant General Basic Officer's Leaders Course, the Adjutant General Advanced Course, and the United States Army Command and General Staff College. She earned a Bachelor of Science in biology from Jackson State University, a Master of Arts in management and leadership from Liberty University and a Master of Operational Studies from the Army Command and General Staff College.

Maj. Robinson's military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal the Parachutist Badge and various other service, unit and campaign medals.