

BIOGRAPHY

LANSING MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING STATION

120 East Jolly Road, Lansing, MI 48910

Phone: (517) 318-9888

Lieutenant Commander John C. Allen

United States Navy

Commander,

Lansing Military Entrance Processing Station

Lieutenant Commander John C. Allen is the commander of the Lansing Military Entrance Processing Station.

He earned his commission through Officer Candidate School in August 2009.

Lieutenant Commander Allen served as an aviator, Patrol Squadron 45, Jacksonville, Florida; assistant branch head, Distribution Policy and Procedure, Navy Personnel Command 451, Millington, Tennessee; aircraft launch and recovery officer aboard the supercarrier USS Nimitz, homeported in Bremerton, Washington; flag aide to the Commander, Navy Region Northwest, Bangor, Washington; and head enlisted strength planner, Chief of Naval Personnel, Arlington, Virginia.

His professional military education includes the Joint Professional Military Education Course and Naval War College. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and a Master of Business Administration from Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Alabama.

Lieutenant Commander Allen's military awards and decorations include four Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, two Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals, and various unit and service medals and ribbons.