

Miami

Military Entrance Processing Station
7789 NW 48th Street, Suite 150, Miami, FL 33166
Phone: (305) 908-6400

Lieutenant Commander Ryan Webster

United States Coast Guard

Lieutenant Commander Ryan Webster is the commander of the Miami Military Entrance Processing Station and supports the USMEPCOM mission of evaluating applicants by applying Department of Defense standards in processing and determining eligibility for military service.

He received his commission through the United States Coast Guard Academy in New London, Connecticut, in 2012.

He served as deck watch officer aboard U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Venturous in St. Petersburg, Florida; executive officer aboard U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Isaac Mayo in Key West, Florida; operations research analyst, Coast Guard Deputy Commandant of Operations, Washington, D.C.; White House social aide, Washington, D.C.; and commanding officer aboard U.S. Coast Guard Cutter William Flores in Miami, Florida.

His professional military education includes Coast Guard Law Enforcement Boarding Officer School, Prospective Commanding Officer Afloat Course, Joint Professional Military Education I from the U.S. Naval War College, and various technical afloat training. He earned a Bachelor of Science in operations research and computer analysis from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy; a Master of Science in operations research from the College of William and Mary, and a Master of Arts in Defense and Strategic Studies from the U.S. Naval War College.

His awards include the Public Health Service Meritorious Service Medal, three Coast Guard Commendation Medals, the Coast Guard Achievement Medal, and various service, unit, and personal medals and ribbons.