

BIOGRAPHY

OKLAHOMA MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING STATION
301 Northwest 6th Street, Suite 150
Oklahoma City, OK 73102
Phone: (405) 416-6525

Lieutenant Commander Daniel J. Walker

United States Navy

Commander,

Oklahoma City Military Entrance Processing Station

Lieutenant Commander Daniel J. Walker is the commander of the Oklahoma City Military Entrance Processing Station.

He enlisted in the Navy at the Tampa MEPS in 2000, and earned his commission through the United States Naval Academy in 2008. Lieutenant Commander Walker served as fleet electronic support technician, Naval Security Group Activity Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; communications officer, force protection officer, and operations intelligence division officer aboard the destroyer USS Bulkeley, Norfolk, Virginia; safety analyst and building manager, Code 30 Afloat Safety Division, Naval Safety Center, Norfolk; damage control assistant aboard the destroyer USS James E. Williams, Norfolk; command innovation officer and command Lean Six Sigma black belt, Innovation and Continuous Process Improvement Office, Naval Service Training Command, Great Lakes, Illinois; and Sexual Assault Prevention and Response officer and military manpower and personnel officer, Human Resources, Assistant Commander for Corporate Operations, Naval Supply Systems Command, Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania.

His professional military education includes the Command Leadership Course, Military Justice Senior Officers Course, Intermediate Leadership Course, Casualty Assistant Calls Officer Course, Naval War College Strategy and War Course, Naval War College Theater Security and Decision Making Course, Naval War College Joint Military Operations Course, Damage Control Assistant Senior Enlisted Course, and Naval War College Command and Staff Course. He also earned a Bachelor of Science in Information Technology from the United States Naval Academy, a Master of Business Administration from Webster University, and a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt from Villanova University.

Lieutenant Commander Walker's decorations and awards include two Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, two Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals, the Recruit Training Service Ribbon, and numerous unit and service medals and ribbons.