

Phoenix

Military Entrance Processing Station
2800 N. Central Ave. Suite 300, Phoenix, AZ 85004-1007
Phone: (620) 586-2580

Lieutenant Commander Roy G. Bliss II

United States Navy

Lieutenant Commander Roy G. Bliss II is the commander of Phoenix Military Entrance Processing Station and supports the USMEPCOM mission of evaluating applicants by applying Department of Defense standards in processing and determining eligibility for military service.

He received his commission through Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island in 2014.

Afloat, he served as administrative officer and main propulsion division officer aboard USS WASP homeported in Norfolk, Virginia; anti-terrorism officer aboard USS Warrior, forward deployed to Sasebo, Japan; Ashore, he served as officer-in-charge of Personnel Support Detachment Atsugi, Japan; administrative officer, Chief, Naval strength planner and Navy element administrative officer, United States Southern Command.

His military education includes non-resident program for Joint Professional Military Education Phase I, Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island, Command Leadership Course, Advanced Officer Leadership Executive Officer Course, Senior Leader Legal Course, Intermediate Leadership Course, Division Officer Leadership Course, and Human Resources Intermediate Course. . He earned a Master of Business Administration in financial management from Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California; Bachelor of Science in psychology from Jacksonville State University, Jacksonville, Alabama and a Professional in Human Resources certification from the Human Resources Certification Institute, Alexandria, Virginia and is a qualified Surface Warfare Officer.

Lt. Cmdr. Roy G. Bliss II's military awards and decorations include one Defense Meritorious Service Medal, two Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, one Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, and various service, unit and personal medals and ribbons.