

BIOGRAPHY

SEATTLE MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING STATION
4735 East Marginal Way South, Ste 161, Box 16, Seattle, WA 98134-2388
Phone: (206) 701-5105

Commander Jay N. Hyler

United States Navy

Commander

5th Battalion, United States Military Entrance Processing Command, and
Seattle Military Entrance Processing Station

Commander Jay N. Hyler is the commander of the 5th Battalion, United States Military Entrance Processing Command and the Seattle Military Entrance Processing Station.

He earned his commission through the ROTC program at the University of Washington, Seattle, in 2004.

Commander Hyler served as an electronic equipment technician aboard the ballistic missile submarine, USS Henry M. Jackson, homeported in Bangor, Washington; and was a student with the Broadened Opportunity for Officer Selection and Training (Boost), Newport, Rhode Island; undergraduate student, University of Washington, Seattle; student naval aviator, Naval Flight Training, Pensacola, Florida; graduate student, Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California; and served as recruiting operations officer, Naval Recruiting District Seattle, Washington; commanding officer, Transient Personnel Unit Puget Sound, Bangor; operations support officer, Navy Region Northwest, Bangor; and was a graduate student at the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

His professional military training Naval Postgraduate School and the Army War College. He also earned a Bachelor of Science of Psychiatry and Behavior Science from the University of Washington.

Commander Hyler's military awards and decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal with Large Gold Star, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal with Large Gold Star, and various unit and service medals and ribbons.