

BIOGRAPHY

SPRINGFIELD MILITARY ENTRANCE PROCESSING STATION

551 Airlift Drive, Westover ARB, Chicopee, MA 01022

Phone: (413) 377-3333

Lieutenant Commander Emmanuel E. Mamaril

United States Navy

Commander

Springfield Military Entrance Processing Station

Lieutenant Commander Emmanuel E. Mamaril is the commander of the Springfield Military Entrance Processing Station.

He received his commission from the Reserve Officer Training Corps at San Diego State University, California, in May 2011.

Lieutenant Commander Mamaril served as an ordnance officer, aboard the guided missile frigate USS Thach, homeported in San Diego, California; training officer, aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Chancellorsville, homeported in Yokosuka, Japan; assistant director, Administration and Military Personnel, Office of Naval Intelligence, Washington, D.C.; and operations officer, Houston MEPS, Houston, Texas.

His professional military training, qualifications, and education include Surface Warfare Officer, Engineering Officer of the Watch, Basic Leadership Course, Human Resources Introductory Course, Intermediate Leadership Course, and Phase I Joint Professional Military Education. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Management, San Diego State University, San Diego, California; a Master of Science in Human Resources Development, Villanova University, Villanova, Pennsylvania; and a Master of Military Art and Science in National Security Studies, United States Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. He is board certified as a Senior Professional in Human Resources from the Human Resources Certificate Institute.

His awards and decorations include the Joint Service Commendation Medal, two Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, and various service, unit, and personal medals and ribbons.